UNMISS Facilitates Child Protection Workshop for Parliamentarians

The United Nations Mission in South Sudan (UNMISS) will facilitate a one-day workshop on Child Protection, Thursday 13 June. This workshop, taking place in Juba, will be held for South Sudan Legislative Assembly members, from the South Sudan Parliamentary Lobby Group on Children. The workshop will also address staff from the Ministry of Gender, Child and Social Welfare.

The objective of this training is to highlight UNMISS mandate on child protection; raise awareness on the international obligations for the protection of children and women who remain victims of armed conflict in South Sudan; as well as reinforce the importance of ratifying and implementing international human rights treaties related to children, women, and refugees.

A photo bulletin will be issued to media after the event.
